Public Works: REDUCE, REUSE, RECYCLE

Why spend a fortune on wrapping paper when you can be resourceful and use what you have at home? Magazines, newspapers and even maps are a great way to wrap gifts. The cartoon section in Sunday's paper would bring a smile to a child's face. Know someone who likes to travel? An old map would come in handy. How about wrapping the present in the sports section of the paper and giving it to a sports enthusiast? These are just a few ideas of how to reduce, reuse and recycle.
